NOW RELIEVING THE DISTRESS AT MESSINA

Two American Ships Arrive With Clothing and Other Needed Supplies.

MESSINA, Jun. 10 .- General Mazza has adopted stringent measures to proect the people and property. In adiition to establishing a police service around the city he has issued orders that any person found excavating without a permit shall be shot. General Mazza declares that under the guise of rescuers many thieves were committing Sanitary conditions have greatly improved and it is now believed that there is little danger of the spread of the disease.

The American relief ship Bayern, fly The American relief ship Bayern, flying the Red Cross flag, arrived Friday. A small amount of clothing was sent to the American consulate and the remainder of the stores are being distributed to ports along the south coast. One of the relief party on the Bayern, Nelson Gay, of Boston, was injured during the voyage. One of his ribs is fractured.

The United States supply ship Culgoa, which arrived from Port Said on Friday, carried 130 tons of provisions and was well stocked with blankets and wearing apparel. The stores were sent ashore and distributed.

FAITHFUL DOG GUARDS MASTER'S LIVING TOMB

MESSINA, Jan. 16.—The body of Madame Ogston, wife of the British consul at Mession, whee with his daughter, escaped from the ruins, was found today. The British consul is reported from Palermo as recovering from his injuries.

The flying are still being taken from the ruins. Ten days ago it was thought that all buried under the wreckage must have perished, but several persons taken out Saturday were found to be in extraordinarity good condition.

A party of sharpshooters rescued an old man. Their attention was called to the place where he was lying by the whiling of a faithful dog. They succeeded in removing a great quantity of isbris and there they came upon the log's master, alive, but unconscious frey carried the sufferer to the hospital, and the officer in command of the party ook the dog under his care.

KING MANUEL RIDES THROUGH LISBON STREETS

LISBON (By way of Badajos, Spain) Lisbon (By way of Badajos, Spain).

Jan. 10.—In order to dissipate the rumors current here that his recent illness and entalled lung trouble. King Manuel, attired in the uniform of a field marshal, rode through the principal streets, followed by a brilliant staff. It was noted generally that the king was very pale.

It is said that the Duke of Oporto, the king's uncle and heir-apparent to the Portuguese throne, has declared that in the event of Manuel's death nothing could induce him to assume the crown. In such circumstances, as there is no other descendant of the royal family in direct line of succession, the monarchial form of government in Portugal would be seriously jeopardized.

Now Up to Matos.

WILLEMSTAD, Jan. 10.—There are rumors here that the Venezuelan government has cabled to General Manuel A. Matos, now in Paris, that it is the government's intention to charge him with the task of settling controversies between Venezuela and France and Holland in case those governments will not accept Foreign Minister Jose de J. Paul as arbitrator.
